

MRS. R. GEIGLEY WINS DRYER AT COOKING SCHOOL

Mrs. Roy M. Geigley, R. 3, was awarded the grand prize, a $239.96 Kelvinator automatic clothes dryer, at the closing session of the Upper Adams County Cooking School Friday evening in the South Mountain Fairgrounds Memorial Auditorium at which nearly one thousand women were present.

Four hundred additional prizes including food prepared by Miss Madeline D. Linehan, nationally-known food authority, who has been conducting cooking school in the county for two weeks. The names of the prize-winners will be announced next week.

Carl A. Baum of The Gettysburg Times, in his closing remarks, announced that "usually I am happy on the last night of a cooking school, realizing that a job has been successfully accomplished but I don't feel so tonight. This year everyone has been wonderful, the lecturer, Miss Linehan, her assistants, Mrs. Mabel Young, of Ipswich, Mass., Miss Martha Strasbaugh, Gettysburg, the local merchants who cooperated with the cooking school, and the sixty some employees of The Gettysburg Times who had a hand, each and every one, in helping to make this school the best one, in my opinion, in 24 years."

"Never before have I had such cooperation," said Mr. Baum. "In closing this session I can say that we have had a record attendance at each session. We thank you for coming. We have tried to make a gesture of good will by presenting this school and showing you the latest merchandise. Miss Linehan has given you some new ideas in cooking, I am sure.

Miss Linehan said "Whether you like to cook or not, it is every woman's duty to be a home-maker, especially if she is a wife or mother. It is a glorious responsibility and one any woman will not wish to shirk. Cooking is part of that responsibility.

"Good and nutritious food should be cooked for your family to keep your husband and children healthy and happy. In this way you will be doing good Americans and doing something for your country.

"I think Adams County is beautiful and I have always enjoyed coming here to conduct the cooking schools. Even though I am leaving (Continued on Page 5)

CHICKENS, EGGS DECLINE; MORE MARKET TRAFFIC

Chicken and egg prices dropped on the Farmers Market today. At the same time the market seemed to attract the largest number of customers in some weeks.

Egg prices declined on some stands to 45 cents for large, with the price of jumbos at 50 cents a dozen and mediums at 40 cents a dozen. The decline was a nickel a dozen on each size.

Chicken prices generally were 55 cents a pound for roasters and 60 for fryers, with some fryers at 55 cents. Out chicken remained for the most part at 75 cents a pound for the more desirable cuts, while bony parts were selling at a lower price.

Turkeys were available today at 65 cents a pound. Ducks remained at the same 60 cents a pound price that has become standard over the past several months.

Flowers, which turned the market into a petal garden for the past several weeks, were less abundant today. There were still some cut flowers at 25 and 30 cents a bunch. Dahlia roots were selling at 25 cents apiece, but the volume of flowers was drastically reduced.

Lettuce More Plentiful

Spring onions were still ten cents a bunch; rhubarb 15 cents a bunch. Lettuce was more abundant today, was ten cents a box. Apples were $3 to $4 a bushel.

Cream was 40 cents a pint; cottage cheese, 20 cents a pint; potato salad, 25 cents a pint; butter, 70 cents a pound; sassafras was 35 cents a pack; home-made soap, five cents a cake; apples continued at the $3 to $4 a bushel price ranging down to half bushel quantities at 35 to 60 cents. Vinegar was 30 cents a half gallon, and noodles 50 cents a pound.

Twin Babies Die At Warner Hospital

Twin sons born at the Warner Hospital Friday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ridenour, Emmitsburg, died this morning.

Surviving are the parents, Leo and Grace (Wells) Ridenour, two sisters, Shirley and Terry Jean, at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ridenour; the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Emma Wells, and a great-grandmother, Mrs. Ann Baker. All are of Emmitsburg.

Graveside services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Mountain View Cemetery, Emmitsburg, with the Rev. Fr. John Sullivan officiating.

LAUDS SERVICE OF U.S. WOMEN IN ARMED FORCES

The history of women's participation in the armed forces was presented by Lt. Col. William M. Lipsey, professor of military science and tactics at Gettysburg College, Friday evening at a meeting of the Women's Civic Council held at the YWCA.

"Starting with Molly Pitcher in the Revolution, women have served with the armed forces in various capacities throughout the history of the nation. While the earlier participating was by women who accompanied their husbands into battle, formal recognition of the part women can play in the armed forces, particularly as nurses, came about during the Civil War, when Clara Barton and others set up an organization of nurses to care for the wounded in the hospitals," Lipsey said.

"During World War I, women were engaged in secretarial and other duties as well as nursing, but the principal service of women as equal members of the armed forces came about during World War II and has continued since.

"The manpower shortage of World War II led to the establishment of women's units in all branches of the armed forces, and the manner in which they carried on their work more than proved the value of women's units.

Hear C-D Reports

"Particularly in fields where great precision patients are required, women proved better than men," he said.

"The armed forces offer women exceptional opportunities to secure further training and education in many fields, ranging from clerical, through weather station duty, and the field of mechanics," Col. Lipsey added.

Reports were presented at the meeting on the work of the approximately 20 organizations carrying out the survey of the town for Civil Defense. Further reports will be presented at the June 18 meeting of the Women's Civic Council at the YWCA.

The president, Mrs. Forrest Craver, presided at the meeting.

RESUME TOWN DRIVE MONDAY

Solicitation of the First Ward and the remainder of the Third Ward by the Gettysburg Fire Department will start Monday evening, it was announced today.

Because of the firemen's meeting Wednesday, and other activities the remainder of the week, only two days could be devoted this week to the solicitation of the Third Ward, it was announced.

As a result the firemen plan to complete that ward and carry out the canvass for donations in the First Ward next week.

Officials of the canvass have asked as many firemen as possible to turn out Monday and each succeeding night in order to complete the collection as soon as possible.

The firemen, with more than $3,000 collected so far, hope that the donations will exceed $5,000 mark. Most of this year's collection will go toward payment of the Rescue Truck, as well as purchase of other new and replacement equipment.

Nominate 11 For Association Board

Eleven men were nominated for positions on the 1954 board of directors for the re-organized Gettysburg Sportsmen's Association at a meeting of the nominating committee Friday evening. Nine directors will be elected at the association meeting next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the clubhouse on Wainwright Ave.

The nominees are Richard Gardner, Bernard Miller, Roy LeVan, Raymond Singley, George Hughes, John Wisotzkey, William Bigham, William Hemler, Francis Sanders, Clarence Swinn Jr. and James G. Sneeringer. Singley, Wisotzkey and Sneeringer were the members of the nominating committee.

After the election Wednesday, the board will elect association officers. Thirteen of the 30 shares of stock authorized at $50 per share have been issued.

GOLD KEYS FOR 12 SENIORS AT BOOSTER EVENT

Gold keys were presented to eight seniors and four majorities in the Gettysburg High School Senior Band at a covered dish supper held Friday evening in the high school cafeteria by the Band Boosters' Club. About 180 attended.

The awards were presented by Band Director Robert G. Zeigler to the following band members: John Sanders, Dora Mae Snyder, George Carey, Fred Baker, Paul Ketterman Jr., Joanne Deardorff, Gloria Harner and Joyce Muselman. The majorities who were honored were Cherie Lott, Carolyn Little, Barbara Weishaar and Norma Oates.

The newly-elected president of the Band Boosters, William R. Swisher, presided. The invocation was given by Dr. H. S. Fox and there were brief talks by Superintendent Lloyd C. Keefe, Principal G. W. LeFever, Mr. Zeigler and by Elwood Spriggle, former member of the band and now director of the prize-winning William Penn High School Band of York. A clarinet quartet from Mr. Spriggle's band presented several selections and there were colored films shown on band marching and drills.

New Election Board For Reading Twp.

The Adams County Court this morning appointed a new election board for Reading Twp., upon petition of residents of that area, following the resignation of the previously elected officials.

The new Reading Twp. officials are Glenn Klinedinst, judge of elections; Chester O. Shank, majority inspector, and Kermit Ziegler, minority inspector.

The board that resigned included Paul L. Chronister, judge, and W. D. Jacobs and Carl D. Neidick, inspectors. No reason was given for their resignations.

Californian Finds Article In Times About Fire 75 Yrs. Ago

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mickley, of 1225 S. Ethel St., Alhambra, California, are finding Mr. Mickley's first trip to his native Adams County in 70 years unusually pleasant.

Visiting cousins here, the couple was told that, sometime during "corn husking season" last year, The Gettysburg Times, in its "Out of the Past" column, published an article concerning the burning of a barn on the Mickley farm 75 years ago, when Mr. Mickley was a two year old child there.

Within five minutes time, the article was located in the files of The Gettysburg Times here and by chance a copy of the issue containing the article, September 28, 1953, was available. The Mickleys were presented with the copy of the paper.

Mr. Mickley's family moved to

COUNTY COUPLE WED FRIDAY IN ARENDTSTVILLE

In a candlelight service with a setting of white carnations, white snapdragons, ferns and palms, Miss Jean Hackenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell S. Hackenberg, Gardner, R. 2, was united in marriage with Jack H. Orner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold E. Orner, Arendtsville, Friday evening at seven o'clock in Trinity Lutheran Church, Arendtsville. The Rev. Robert C. Schiebel, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white baller-

FAMILY MOVES INTO HOME BUILT BY NEIGHBORS

With expressions of gratitude to their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson and their son John Thursday moved into their new home, near Mt. Carmel Church, a home that was built for them by friends and neighbors in that community.

The three, who say they "never will be able to thank everyone enough," were burned out about ten weeks ago. Neighbors decided to build a new home for them. Many unsolicited donations of material and money were received.

The fire which destroyed their old home occurred while Mr. Wilkinson was a patient at the Warner Hospital recovering from a heart attack.

After the fire, members of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church, and the pastor, Rev. Roger Burnett, volunteered to build a new home. The entire community joined in.

A son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, Paul Little, Orrtanna, R. D., who is a carpenter, and with whom the family resided after the fire, was selected as the general chairman, "contractor and architect" by the neighborhood committee.

Carpenters and masons donated their time, individuals gave use of trucks and equipment, various firms donated materials, a barn was donated for lumber and a roof. Rev. Roger Burnett said today "At least 100" individuals and firms took part in the construction of the home.

One more project remains in connection with the home. The community group plans to plant a lawn and "do some landscaping" at the home. That work will be completed this summer.

Ike, Mamie May Visit Gettysburg

WASHINGTON (AP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower left in the rain today for a weekend in Maryland's Catoctin mountains. They left the White House at 8:55 a.m. on a 60-mile drive north to their Camp David retreat at Thurmont, Md.

Over the weekend they probably will drive from the camp to Gettysburg, Pa., for a look at the renovation work on the farm home to which they plan to retire when the President leaves office.

They will return to the White House tomorrow evening.

2 FRATERNITIES TO MERGE HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Weidensall Hall will be the scene of formal pledging-initiation ceremonies this afternoon at two o'clock as the last of the local Greek-letter fraternal groups, Phi Kappa Rho, merges with the national Sigma Nu fraternity.

Zeta Sigma chapter of Sigma Nu will be installed by Delta Sigma chapter, Carnegie Institute of Technology.

The weekend installation festivities began Friday afternoon with a faculty tea and open house at 43 West Broadway. The tea, with Mrs. Wilbur Tilberg and Mrs. Frank H. Kramer pouring, was given in honor of the national officers of Sigma Nu who are here for the fraternity ceremonies.

Present Charter Tonight

Malcolm C. Sewell, national secretary of Sigma Nu, will present the charter of the new chapter at a banquet to be held this evening at 7:30 at the Hotel Gettysburg. It will be accepted by George Evans, president of the local group.

Others who will speak this evening include: Dean W. E. Tilberg; J. Edward Murphy, Berwyn, Pa., national president of the fraternity and chairman of the awards committee of the National Interfraternity Conference, and general (Continued on Page 4)

Fairfield High School Baccalaureate May 23

The baccalaureate service for the graduating class at the Fairfield High School will be held Sunday evening, May 23, in the Fairfield High School Auditorium with the Rev. Nevins Smith, Hanover Reformed pastor, as the speaker.

PHONE COMPANY TO MEET

Members of the Barlow Rural Telephone Co. will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Barlow Fire Hall to discuss future policy, it was announced today.

CUB SCOUTS TO GO CAMPING

Forty-five Cubs from Pack 73 are expected to participate in a weekend encampment at the 40 and 8 retreat, west of Cashtown, on May 22 and 23, Jacob G. Appler, cub master, announced today.

The group will leave from the Presbyterian Church, Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and return Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Committee chaperones, in addition to Mr. Appler, will include: William Zhea, William Swisher, Robert Shearer, Richard Codori, Edward Longnecker, and J. B. Collins.

The committee has planned a late Saturday afternoon hike, cubbing, and games. Movies may also be shown.

Sunday School classes will be conducted Sunday morning. Protestant boys will worship on the grounds. Transportation will be furnished to take Catholic youths to St. Ignatius Church.

Parents are invited to inspect the cabin and camp grounds Sunday afternoon, from 1:30 to 3 o'clock. Appler reminded parents that Wednesday is the deadline to inform den mothers of their son's participation.

Student Falls Off Fraternity Roof

Richard Molyneux Mitchell, 20, Havertown, a sophomore at Gettysburg College, was reported in a "satisfactory" condition at the Warner Hospital this morning after a fall Friday evening.

The student, a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, fell ten feet from a porch roof at the fraternity house, and struck his head on a concrete walk. Whether the skull was fractured had not been determined this morning.

He was removed to the hospital in the Gettysburg Fire Department Rescue Truck.

performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Elwood Heiser, 607 North St., McSherrystown, sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor. The groom chose for his best man his brother-in-law, Elwood Heiser, McSherrystown. Earl Slagle, Frederick St., Hanover, brother of the groom, and Rodger Toomey, Hanover R. 4, brother-in-law of the bride, served as ushers.

The bride, who was escorted down the aisle by her brother, Frederick Renner, Fairfield, was attired in a gown of imported Chantilly lace over satin, featuring a fitted bodice of lace with an illusion neckline and long sleeves (Continued on Page 4)

JOINT RECITAL HERE ON SUNDAY

The Music Department of Gettysburg College will present its second joint senior recital, Sunday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Music Lounge. Robert Peery and Ernest Morrison will be presented.

Tenor Robert Peery, a theory and voice major at the college, has studied with Prof. R. Henry Ackley, assistant professor of music. Mr. Peery's home is Westfield, N. J., where he was active both in high school music organizations and community and church choirs.

He has been a member of the college choir for the last three years.

Ernest Morrison, pianist, has majored in theory and piano. A native of Hagerstown and a transfer student from Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore, he has studied piano with J. Herbert Springer, of the Music Department.

At Peabody he was coached by Erno Balogh, and has written sev- piano and string quartet.

The recital is a partial fulfillment required by the Music Department of its music majors. The public is invited to attend.

Suspect Hiker Of Theft At Seminary

Attempts by Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary students to be "Good Samaritans" led to a theft at the seminary dorm this morning.

One of the students, returning from Harrisburg, picked up a hitchhiker, police were told this morning. The hitchhiker, described as a man of about 24, stocky, wearing a blue or purple sweater with three yellow stripes, and tan trousers, told the seminarian that he was hiking his way to Oklahoma.

The seminarian arranged for him to sleep at the dormitory overnight. This morning the traveler left early. After he had gone it was found that the pocketbook of one of the students, Harold Motter, containing $14, was also missing.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

A daughter was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Punt, 423 Main St., McSherrystown, at the Hanover Hospital.

With all other contests overshadowed by the fight for control of the Republican party in Adams County, Adams Countians will go to the polls on Tuesday to cast their ballots at the primary election.

The battle between GOP County Chairman John H. Basehore and H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers trucker and now acting director of highway safety in Pennsylvania, for the chairmanship of the Republican Committee in Adams County holds the spotlight of interest in Tuesday's voting.

The contest between Mr. Basehore, who is also Gettysburg borough treasurer, and Mr. Pitzer may bring a decisive climax to the long war between the Republican factions they head in this county.

Governor Backs Pitzer

Pitzer with the open backing of Governor Fine and Otto V. Messner, state secretary of revenue, is challenging the GOP organization whose head Basehore has been for the last 14 years. The principal backing for Basehore comes from county Republicans who resent the lack of recognition the county organization has received in the last year or so from the governor's office. They are backing Basehore on a slogan of "home rule for Adams County Republicans."

Republicans in the 42 voting districts of the county will elect 126 committeemen, a county vice chairman, a county chairman, a member of the Republican State Committee and will nominate a candidate for state legislature. In addition they will express their preferences for candidates for nomination for governor, congressman, three judges of the Superior Court, secretary of internal affairs and lieutenant-governor.

About 9,000 May Vote

Democrats will select 84 committeemen and 20 committeewomen from the 42 districts, and a representative to the state Democratic committee. They will also vote for the nominees for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs, three judges of the superior court, congressman and state assemblyman.

While more than 10,000 Republicans are eligible to vote, county election observers expect that less than half the number will turn out for the primary election Tuesday.

The county election board today was delivering materials to some of the 42 voting places. Monday additional districts will be presented with their supplies. Tuesday morning Gettysburg voting officials will receive their supplies about 7:30 o'clock. The polls open at 8 a.m. and remain open to 9 p.m.

Other Choices To Be Made

The Republicans will choose between three candidates for governor and there is opposition for every place on the "state ticket" on the Republican ballot.

For congress, incumbent S. Walter Stauffer is opposed by Chester H. Gross, former congressman from the district.

On the Democratic ticket there are three candidates for governor, including George Leader of York, who attended Gettysburg College.

In the county John D. Lippy Jr., nominee of the Democrats two years ago for the Legislature, is opposed by Eston B. Franks, of Mt. Joy Twp. for the Assemblyman nomination.

Francis Worley is unopposed for the Republican nomination for reelection to the General Assembly.

Expect 25 Entries In Road-e-o Sunday

Adams County's teen-age motorists will match driving skills over an intricate skill test course Sunday in the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored "Road-e-o" safe driving contest at the Acme Parking Lot.

Weather permitting, competition in the civic project, designed to create safe driving habits among Adams County's teen-age set, will begin promptly at 1 p.m. Rain date is May 23. Approximately 25 youthful motorists are expected to vie for a list of prizes which will be presented to the top 20 finalists.

In addition to receiving an inscribed aluminum color-craft plaque, the winner will receive an expense-free trip to Pittsburgh to compete in the state eliminations, July 10, at the Pittsburgh Allegheny Airport. In Friday's edition of The Gettysburg Times it was mistakenly announced that the first 20 finalists would go to Pittsburgh.

Four judges will be stationed at strategic posts along the course—a circuitous avenue of serpentine exercises, smooth stopping, parallel parking, and distance gauging barriers. Drivers will compete in six local car dealers.

AA TO MEET

Local members of Alcoholics Anonymous will meet Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Legion Home on Baltimore St.

TWO INJURED IN 2 CRASHES

Two persons were injured and damage totaled $1,550 in two auto accidents early this morning.

State police estimated damage at $750 when the convertible coupe of James W. Eyer, 19, Emmitsburg, ran off the road and crashed 2 1/2 miles east of here on the Lincoln Highway at 1:15 o'clock this morning. Eyer was treated at the Hanover Hospital for lacerations of the face, sprains and other injuries.

James Kenneth Zeigler, 34, Littlestown R. 2, a passenger in a car operated by Glenn Y. Kindig, 26, also of Littlestown R. 2, was slightly injured in an accident at 12:05 o'clock this morning. State police said the left front of Kindig's car collided with the side of a car being operated by Thomas Sites, 21, Fairfield R. 1 as they were about to pass on a curve on the Cashtown-Fairfield Rd. Zeigler did not seek medical treatment. Damage to the Sites car was estimated at $500 and to the Kindig vehicle, $300.

KNOUSE APPLIES FOR PIE PATENTS

Dr. James R. Oyler, technical director, Knouse Foods, has been advised by the U. S. Patent Office that his application for patent on Lucky Leaf Pie Fillings has been accepted. The application, made by the inventor and assigned to the company, seeks patent protection on the preparation and process developed by Dr. Oyler and Knouse Foods within the past year for the eight varieties of Lucky Leaf pie fillings.

Dr. Oyler explained that final approval on applications for patent frequently requires from eight to ten months. However, acceptance of the application on the part of the Patent Office protects the inventor and the manufacturer against duplication of technical process. Applications are accepted only after extensive investigations are made by the Patent Office for similar processes and techniques.

Five-Year Development

"Although many innovations have been made in the manufacture of Lucky Leaf fruit products in the past five years, this is the first time application for patent has ever been made," Dr. Oyler said. He and his laboratory staff at Peach Glen have spent five years developing the formula used in all of the Lucky Leaf pie fillings.

Acceptance of the application indicates that Lucky Leaf fruit pie fillings are unique in their field, both from product and process standpoint.

Trying To Complete Salvation Army Drive

James L. Gardner, field representative for the Salvation Army and director of the county drive, announced this morning that Gettysburg has turned in to campaign headquarters nearly two-thirds of its $2,000 quota. The goal set for Adams County in the current Salvation Army Fund drive is $3,500. Gardner said that persons who have been misled by door-to-door workers can forward contributions to John W. Hewitt, local treasurer, at the Gettysburg National Bank. He urged campaign workers who have not yet fully covered their designated areas to do so in the near future.

Pointing out that in 1953 the Salvation Army handled 198 cases in Gettysburg, Gardner stated: "The support of every good citizen is needed to carry on this much needed service in both the borough and county."

The final presentation of the Marian Year Program by 165 students of Delone High School will be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the school in McSherrytown. The program of songs and music were presented Thursday and Friday nights. A large attendance is expected Sunday night. An offering will be taken.

Brain Hemorrhage Fatal To Heiresse

PARIS (AP) — Bolivian heiress Isabella Patino Goldsmith died last night from a brain hemorrhage, bringing an end to a romantic story that was climaxed last January in a headline-making runaway marriage. She was 18. The youngest daughter of multi-millionaire tin magnate Antenor Patino died in the American Hartman Clinic following an operation. At her bedside at the time of her death was her husband, James Goldsmith, 20-year-old son of a wealthy British hotel owner.

The couple swept newspaper front pages when they ran away to Scotland to marry in defiance of the elder Patino.

MAP STRATEGY

GENEVA (AP) — Top diplomats of the Western Big Three met today in what an informed source said was a session designed to "map out strategy" for secret East-West negotiations on trying to halt the war in Indochina.

The Western delegates also took advantage of today's conference recess to give careful study to Russia's sudden shift in position on an Indochina peace settlement.

Mission Group Meets

Mrs. Edgar A. Wolfe was the leader at the monthly meeting of the Alta Hummer Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran Church, on Thursday evening at the church. Mrs. Wolfe introduced the topic "Each One Reach One" and the members participated in the discussion. The Scripture was read and prayer offered by Mrs. Wolfe, and a song service followed. The missionary benediction was repeated in unison. The group joined in a magazine quiz.

The business session was in charge of Mrs. Samuel Renner, president. Mrs. Renner reported on a conference of the missionary societies held on April 29, when the revised by-laws of the constitution were read, since the conference was divided. It was announced that the quarterly thank offering will be received at the June meeting. A report on the book "Africans on Safari" was given by Mrs. George Trump, and Mrs. Samuel Renner will give the book report next month. It was decided to continue the clothing drive, now being conducted by the society, until June. At the conclusion of the business, refreshments were served to the 18 members and one visitor present by the May hostesses, Mrs. Alvin J. Groft and Mrs. George Cool. The society will meet again on Wednesday, June 9, at the church, and Mrs. Harry O. Harner and Mrs. Edwin L. Harget will be hostesses. The leader for the evening will be Miss Evelyn Asper.

Littlestown Cubmaster George E. Hornberger has called a meeting of the local den mothers and den chiefs for Tuesday evening, 7 o'clock, in the State bank building. Plans will be furthered for the Cub awards ceremony to be held soon.

The Carroll County, Md., scholastic track and field meet for senior and junior high schools, scheduled to be held today at Western Maryland College, Westminster, was postponed due to inclement weather.

Upper Communities

Telephone Mrs. Richard Raffensperger, Biglerville 8

Mrs. Walter Slaybaugh attended sessions of the board of managers of the Women's Mission Association at the King St. United Brethren Church, Chambersburg, this week. She was a delegate from the Pennsylvania Conference.

Eighty-two seniors from the Upper Adams Joint School System will leave Monday morning to spend several days in New York City. The class will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ernst, Arendtsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eckenrode, Biglerville. Mr. Ernst is the class advisor.

This year's dental program in the Upper Adams Joint School District, which is sponsored by the Gettysburg Rotary Club, will close next Tuesday afternoon with a picnic at the South Mountain Fair Grounds, Arendtsville. All elementary pupils are eligible to attend who present a statement from a dentist to the effect that all necessary dental corrections have been made, or pupils who during this school year had a school dental examination and no defects were noted by examining dentist. The school nurses report a marked improvement in the number of pupils who go regularly to a dentist the last three years since the Rotary Club has sponsored this program. The total enrollment for the three elementary units is 704 and about 400 of these children will attend the picnic.

The Third Grade room in Biglerville is the first honor room in the jointure. Arendtsville Grade Two and Bendersville Grade One have the most pupils that have had dental defects corrected within the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bowditch Jr. and son, Bobby, Hatboro, are spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Raffensperger, Biglerville, and other relatives in the community.

Members of the oil painting classes from the upper communities are asked to bring all their work Tuesday evening before 5 o'clock to the basement of the Biglerville Lutheran Church, W. York St., in order that frames can be chosen and arrangements made for the art exhibit in the near future. The two classes under the direction of Ernest Krape, Gettysburg, are reminded that out door instructions will be held May 25 and 28.

Elaine Alloff and Nancy Tate gave a show and tell demonstration of "How To Build A Fire" at the Arendtsville Outdoor Cookery Club meeting held this week at the home of their leader, Mrs. Roy Tate. Thirteen members were present. The group discussed plans for their summer meetings. The girls will hold their supper out of doors at the next meeting at the home of their leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Snyder, Aspers, left Friday for Mt. Vernon, Ohio, where they will attend the graduation exercises of their son, Wayne, who is a student at the Mt. Vernon Academy. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder plan to return home Sunday.

The Bendersville Brownie Troop 29 will entertain the Biglerville Brownie Troop 27 at its next meeting which will be held Wednesday in the Bendersville Grade School building from 4 to 5 o'clock.

S/IC and Mrs. Royce Hewett and son, Fort Hill, Okla., who were visiting in Florida with the former's parents, are now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wierman, Arendtsville. Sergeant Hewett will leave this evening for Fort Lewis, Wash., where he will receive his overseas assignment. Mrs. Hewett and son, Donnie, will remain in Arendtsville with her parents for the present.

Mrs. D. B. Kulp, Red Lion, visited Friday with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bucher, Biglerville, and other relatives in the vicinity.

The Christian Fellowship Sunday School Class of the Trinity-Bender's Evangelical Reformed Church, Biglerville, will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawver, Biglerville, Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

UNUSUAL STYLE SHOW PLANNED

An unusual style show, "Fashions from the Feed Bag," will be presented by the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity on Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. in the POS of A Hall, E. King St. The fashion show will be held in connection with the regular May meeting of the club. Plans for the style revue were announced today by Miss Mary Rita Redding, chairman of the program committee for the Cotton Carnival. The showing will feature a wardrobe of McCall styles provided by the National Cotton Council and made from cotton bags in print, solid and dyed fabrics.

The 18 smartly designed fashions for all occasions highlight the versatile reuse value of the cotton containers for feed, flour, fertilizer and other farm and home products. The collection will include house-dresses, playclothes, tailored daytime frocks and dresses for afternoon and evening wear. Today's cotton bag, offered in a wide range of color and pattern, is a product of the latest in the textile designer's art, Miss Redding pointed out. "Modern cotton packaging plays an important role on the American domestic scene," she said. "The cotton bag, traditional in home sewing, now comes in variety of color and design adaptable to both wardrobe and home accessory needs. The style show scheduled for Wednesday will demonstrate new ideas for the thrifty and fashionable reuse of these cotton bag fabrics."

The girls of the Senior Class of the Littlestown High School have received a special invitation to attend the fashion revue and mothers who are members of the club are invited to take their daughters to the meeting.

The program committee in addition to Miss Redding consists of Mrs. Carroll E. Arter, Mrs. John F. Feeser Jr., Mrs. Beavon Hanlon, Mrs. Donald C. Sheely, Mrs. Monroe J. Stavelly and Miss Betty L. Reindollar. The hostess committee for the evening includes Mrs. George C. DeHoff, Miss Malva Duterra, Mrs. James W. Fager, Mrs. John W. LeGore, Mrs. Joseph R. Riden and Mrs. Holman L. Sell. The business meeting will include a report of the nominating committee composed of Mrs. Edward H. Leister, Mrs. Anna C. Leach and Mrs. Bernard M. Selby.

Wedding

Landry—Klinedinst

Verna R. Klinedinst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Klinedinst, Thomasville R. 1, and Navy Fireman David V. Landry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Landry, South Norwalk, Conn., were married in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Elwood Falkenstein at Westminster, Md., April 25.

A 1951 graduate of East Berlin High School, the bride is employed by Continental Wire Corporation, York.

The bridegroom, who attended school in Portland, Me., is stationed at Norfolk, Va., and is awaiting assignment to the aircraft carrier USS Intrepid.

While her husband is in the service, the bride will live at her home.

Bully Tortures 2 Little Brothers

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — A teen-age bully beat and tortured two little brothers caught in an alley on their way home from school, stabbing the older child about 200 times with a lead pencil.

Police said the victims of yesterday's vicious attack—John Doto 9, and Joseph 7, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Doto—stumbled arm in arm from the alley and slumped to a curb. A passing salesman drove the bleeding and partly drowsed pair to Cooper Hospital.

Police described the attack as "one of the worst cases of cruelty we have ever seen." The children told authorities this story:

They were on their way home from Our Lady of Mount Carmel parochial school when the unknown attacker pulled them into an alley and demanded money.

The brothers told him they had none and the bully struck them. A woman noticed the disturbance and ordered the older boy to leave.

McCauslin Sales To Receive Award

McCauslin Auto Sales, of 334-36 York St., this morning was informed that it will receive a special award from the Chrysler Corporation.

The award is a bronze plaque given in recognition of the completion of five years participation in the Master Technicians Service Conference, a continuous, nationwide training program in the servicing of Chrysler cars.

Individual awards have been made to the service personnel of McCauslin Auto Sales who are participating in the program. W. B. Rice, administrator of the program, said, "We take our hats off to these master technicians. Many have taken this training on their own time, showing their determination to become experts in their field."

REPUBLICANS OF ADAMS COUNTY!

Do you want a Party organization that is strong?

(instead of one that keeps getting weaker)

Do you want a voice in its plans and activities?

(instead of having your decisions made for you)

Do you want a leader who will take time to lead?

(instead of one who has too much else to do)

Do you want our Party to deliver solid victories?

(instead of barely squeezing through, or losing)

My Friends:

There's no use fooling ourselves . . . all over the nation this November, we Republicans are in for a fight. Right here in Adams County, we've got to have a strong, reliable organization — or we're not going to win!

All of us want Adams County to move ahead . . . to progress . . . to become a Republican stronghold — not just a question mark on the political map! ! !

TEN YEARS AGO

Helrick Day: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Day, 36 North Washington street, today announced the marriage of their daughter, Helen C. Day, to S. C. George A. Helrick, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Helrick, Waynesboro. The ceremony took place April 14 at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church, Taneytown, with the Rev. Alfred T. Sutcliffe officiating.

Orrianna Girl Weds Soldier: Miss Kathryn Mickle Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Donaldson, Orrianna, and Sgt. Charles Pryor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Pryor, Waynesboro, were married May 6 at the bride's home at a candlelight ceremony with the Rev. F. W. Harrison, Bendersville, officiating.

Mrs. Robert Powers Resigns Position: Mrs. Robert J. Powers, the former Miss Katherine Marsden, North Washington street, has resigned her position as secretary to Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, of the Warner Hospital, and has left for Cherry Point, N.C., to join her husband, First Sgt. Powers, of the Marine Corps.

Miss Eloise McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan, West Middle street, a senior at Gettysburg high school, will replace Mrs. Powers as part-time secretary until her graduation later this month when she will become a full-time secretary.

Knouse Plants Dry 150 Tons of Spuds Daily: One hundred and fifty tons of deteriorated potatoes are being converted into livestock feed supplies every day at the Knouse corporation at Peach Glen and Chambersburg, it was learned today. The potatoes are dehydrated and ground to a powder form. The spuds are being turned over to the Commodity Credit Corporation and represent surplus potatoes from last year.

School Board Votes "Emergency" Increases in Teachers' Salaries: Resolving a budget tentatively set up last month, the Gettysburg school board voted salary increases of from $60 to $100 to all its employees—both professional and non-professional—at the board's May meeting but kept the tax rate for next year at the present level of 20 mills.

On the basis of the action taken by the Gettysburg board of school directors, Superintendent Lloyd C. Keefe will be paid $3,960 per year. Salaries in the grade school will range from a high of $2,100 paid Paul Mehring to a low of $1,560. In the high school the salaries will range from $2,910 paid Principal G. W. Lefever down to $1,460.

One high school teacher, Robert D. Fidler, history teacher, was granted a year's leave of absence to serve in the Merchant Marine. The resignation of Mrs. Relda Tilberg as director of girls physical education at the high school was accepted with regret by the directors.

Sends Home 2 Flags Seized on Mt. Cassino: T-Sgt. Charles W. Crone, former Gettysburg high school student and Cashtown resident has sent to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crone, two German flags seized from the walls of the Benedictine Abbey on Mount Cassino during some of the heaviest fighting in Italy.

Sgt. Coffman Now "Missing": Sgt. Charles B. Coffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Coffman, 12 Buford Ave., was reported missing in action over Germany, in a telegram from the War Department received by his parents this morning (May 9).

The young Gettysburg soldier, who trained as an aerial gunner on a bomber, was believed by his parents to have been on his first mission when he was reported missing as of April 22.

Mrs. Kramer Is New President of League Here: Mrs. Frank H. Kramer was elected president of the Woman's League of Gettysburg College at its closing meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon at Christ Lutheran Church. She succeeds Mrs. Thomas L. Cline.

Other officers elected were: Recording secretary, Mrs. Richard A.

Today's Talk

POETRY'S SOUL

Poetry is melodious song. It composes as it is thought and written. It is far more spontaneous than prose. This same quality is illustrated in drawing and painting. All art is poetry, and so is all expression where the soul is invited in! Who can look upon the beautiful marble sculpture of Rodin without interpreting a poem there? Look upon "The Bather" or "The Hand of God."

The Bible is filled with poetry. Examples are to be found in Solomon's sayings and the Psalms of David. There is a spiritual quality to all great poetry. It is striking in Keats, Robert Burns, and some of the shorter poems of Poe. We who love beauty in all expressions, be it in nature or the heart of man, can thank God for our appreciative mind.

There is poetry in every flower, every leaf and tree, and even in a blade of grass. Viewed from any mountain height is an epic poem! There is poetry everywhere you look in nature. In the forest, the river, and the sea. It is interpreted in every song from the throats of birds. And you listen to it in the whisper of the wind. God put color into the world to appease the hunger of those with love in their hearts, for there are sparks of poetry, perhaps, in us all awaiting some moment to burst into flame!

How expressive is the unfolding of every springtime! Like throwing off the garments of night to the full clothing of the day in full array. Examine the simplest leaf from any plant or tree and note the formation—perfect in detail—a poem in itself. What discoveries man has made in delving into the earth and what precious substances of beauty and utility he has discovered, but if man loses his significance he loses all!

Poetry's soul is to be revealed in all life right up to the door of the human heart, if that heart is wise enough to take note and open wide the door for its reception. Only as we have learned to wonder, do we learn to appreciate. It is the one great step to human happiness.

Just Folks

POWER

He strode the world with head in air—

A man of muscle and of might,

Who found in power his chief delight.

He'd rather frighten than be fair.

He'd rather bully than be right.

So used to being strong he grew

That pity from his bosom fled.

"Mercy is but a word," he said,

"I do what I have power to do.

Strong men should lead and not be led!"

But he who lives by strength alone

Walks blindly to his sure defeat.

Soon comes the day when he shall meet

A force that's greater than his own

And from his castle walls retreat.

The gains of strength to strength are lost.

Success on many things depends.

A life is judged by how it ends.

Who takes the prize at any cost

Makes enemies and loses friends.

Miss Shirley Hackenberg, Gardner R. 2, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow strapless ballerina-length gown with a ruffled netting top, a full skirt of nylon tulle and a matching lace short sleeve jacket with a mandarin collar. She wore nylon finger gloves and carried bouquet of mixed flowers and wore a matching headband of flowers.

Miss Patricia Wright, Gardner R. 2, cousin of the bride, and Miss Catherine Crum, Biglerville R.D., a classmate, were the bridesmaids. Their dresses, finger gloves, and flowers were styled like that of the maid of honor, with both wearing aqua. All attendants wore shoes which matched their gowns and earrings like those worn by the bride.

Miss Diane Wright, Gardner R. 2, cousin of the bride, and Miss Lucinda Street, Gettysburg, cousin of the groom, were flower girls and wore short white ruffled gowns and carried baskets of mixed spring flowers. They scattered petals in path of the bride.

Master Ned Wehler, Thomasville, cousin of the groom, dressed in a white suit, served as ring-bearer.

Arnold E. Orner, father of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Daniel Bushman, Arendtsville; A/C George Staub, and Ronald Rice, both Biglerville R. D., and Harold Tuckey, Arendtsville.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with navy and white accessories. The mother of the groom wore a Dior blue dress with navy and white accessories. Their corsages were of white roses and Stephanotis.

Mrs. John A. Hauser, Biglerville, organist, presented a half-hour recital prior to the ceremony which included "Because," "Indian Love Call," "Venetian Love Song" by Nevin, "At Dawning" by Cadman, "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell, and "Ich Leibe Dich" by Grieg. She accompanied Frederick Garretson, Arendtsville, soloist, who sang "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, "O Promise Me" by DeKoven, before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte, during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used.

personnel supervisor of Bell Telephone Co.; John S. Cluss, Uniontown, Pa., commander of division 5, which includes the western Pennsylvania and West Virginia area.

Other Officers Here
Other national officers present this weekend are J. Allen Frear Jr., grand marshal, United States senator from Delaware; Albert H. Wilson, Rochelle, N. Y., past national president of Sigma Nu and currently divisions 1 and 2 commander; Milton L. Draper, Wilmington, Del., division 6 commander. Senator Frear will be here only for the installation ceremonies this afternoon.

Sigma Nu fraternity, with 119 chapters, is divided geographically into 26 divisions with chapters in 46 of the 48 states, and in Canada. Organized as the "Legion of Honor," its founding date was January 1, 1869, and its place of origin, Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va. The fraternal group's founders were James F. Hopkins, Greenfield Quarles, and James M. Riley. These purposes were reasons for its organization: "Honor was its cardinal motive, virtue was its essential teaching, and friendship its token."

Chapter Adviser
Dr. Harvey Hoover, retired seminary instructor, has been named chapter adviser for Zeta Sigma chapter of Sigma Nu at Gettysburg College.

"In Sigma Nu, the local Phi Kappa Rho fraternity has found the principles its members were most interested in establishing. Organized first as the Star Club in January 1891, Phi Kappa Rho was instrumental in giving aid to a retired minister," a fraternity spokesman said.

The weekend activities will be concluded Sunday morning with services in Christ Lutheran Church at 10:45 a.m.

For going away, the bride chose a navy blue linen suit with white accessories and she wore a corsage of white roses. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Slagle will reside in their newly furnished apartment at 607 South St., McSherrystown.

Mrs. Slagle is a 1951 graduate of the Littlestown Junior-Senior High School. Mr. Slagle was graduated from the Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, with the class of 1948. He served in the army for 21 months and is now employed by the Keystone Cabinet Company, Littlestown.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents in Littlestown. Reception decorations included a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, and bouquets of cut flowers.

Mrs. Slagle wore a strapless gown of blue net over satin with a matching jacket of lace. Her headpiece was a coronet of roses and net. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses with flowing streamers of blue satin. Both wore navy blue street-length dresses with navy accessories and corsages of red roses.

Music was provided by the children's choir with Mrs. Bernard Henry, church organist, presiding at the console. The church altar was decorated with bouquets of carnations, snapdragons and ferns.

Wedding guests were present from York, Hanover, Gettysburg, Baltimore, Westminster, McSherrystown, Waynesboro and Littlestown.

TIGERS, REDLEGS MOST IMPROVED CLUBS IN MAJOR LEAGUES TODAY

By BEN PHLEGAR

With the major league pennant races just into their second month, nine of the 16 teams find themselves better off than they were at this stage a year ago.

Two are all even with their 1953 pace. Even the five who have fallen behind aren't too far back of where they were after the first month of last season.

Based on games behind the first place team, the Detroit Tigers have made the biggest gain. A dreadful last at this point in 1953 when they were 12 games behind, the Tigers now find themselves only one game and a half off the pace of the first place White Sox.

In the National League the most improvement has been made by the Cincinnati Redlegs with the surprising New York Giants a close runner-up. The Redlegs were last, seven games behind. Now they're only one game back, even though they are laying fifth in the skin-tight National League race.

The Giants, who moved into a virtual first place tie with Philadelphia by winning their sixth straight last night, are 5½ games better off than in 1953.

A quick breakdown on the other clubs shows Cleveland plus two, the White Sox plus 1½, Baltimore half a game ahead of the pace of the old St. Louis Browns, the Philadelphia Athletics all even, the New York Yankees a game behind, Washington 2½ behind and Boston three behind.

The Yankees beat Detroit 6-4 in the only day game yesterday. In night action Cleveland beat Washington 5-2, Baltimore thumped Boston 7-2 and Chicago edged Philadelphia 4-3 in the American League.

The Giants defeated the Cubs 6-5, Brooklyn absorbed a 10-1 thrashing by the Cardinals. Cincinnati edged the Phillies 1-0 and Pittsburgh broke a seven-game losing streak at the expense of Milwaukee 3-2 in 10 innings in the National League.

A run in the ninth inning on singles by Cass Michaels and Minnie Minoso plus an error enabled the White Sox to pull a full game in front in the American League. Don Johnson, with two two-hit shutouts to his credit as a starter, picked up his fourth victory while working in relief.

Art Fowler of Cincinnati blanked the Phillies on eight hits as he protected a one-run lead from the first inning. Bobby Adams, who made the only hit off Robin Roberts the night before, opened with a single and scored after a sacrifice and Gus Bell's single. Murry Dickson was the loser.

Two ex-Braves combined to trip Milwaukee at Pittsburgh. Max Surkon went the distance against his former teammates and picked up the victory in the 10th when pinchhitter Walker Cooper doubled home Bob Skinner.

Ernie Palfiszewski, Gettysburg College sprint star, was among those who qualified for the semifinals today in the 100-yard dash.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—La Salle's speed merchant, Joe Walker, got off to a good start yesterday in defense of the "Triple Sprint" crown at the opening session of the Middle Atlantic Assn. track and field championships.

The former Washington, D. C., scholastic ace won his specialty, the 100 in 10.2 and came right back to qualify for the 440 in 50.3.

The Explorers, two time winners of the Middle Atlantic meet, also had a pair of qualifiers in the 120-high hurdles, Paul Mida and Mark Harmon.

Bill Reynolds of Delaware should get some stiff competition for the mile from Connie Krauss of St. Joseph.

Most favored contender for the Explorers' crown are St. Joseph's, Lehigh and Lafayette.

Other entrants at La Salle's McCarthy Stadium are Haverford, Swarthmore, Gettysburg, Albright, Bucknell, Scranton, Pennsylvania Military College, Muhlenberg, Juniata, Ursinus, Dickinson, Franklin and Marshall, Drexel and Wagner.

2 FROM MOUNT QUALIFY FOR TRACK FINALS

LYNCHBURG, Va. May 14 (AP)—Roanoke College took a big step toward coping honors in the nineteenth annual Mason-Dixon conference track-and-field meet Friday afternoon when it qualified a dozen men for today's finals Lynchburg College.

The 12 qualifiers from Roanoke bettered by four the number of finalists from Catholic University, runner-up in place-taking during Friday's qualifying tries. Yet to be run off are the semi-finals of the discus, and all action in the pole vault and high jump. They will be held in conjunction with finals in other event today.

Hopkins Places Six
Behind the Maroons and Catholic came Hampden-Sydney with seven, Johns Hopkins with six, Towson State Teachers College with five, Bridgewater and Randolph-Macon with three each. Mount St. Mary's with two and Loyola and host Lynchburg College with one each.

Friday's preliminaries were held under the worst weather conditions possible. A steady rain beat down all afternoon and temperatures were in the high 40's. As the afternoon progressed, the track became muddy causing times in running events to run high.

McInerney, Mt. St. Mary's College, finished second in the shotput and Pollock was sixth in the same event.

FRENCHMAN IS UPSET WINNER; JONES VICTIM

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—No fight is 5 to 1. That is the lesson to be learned from Jacques Royer's upset victory over Ralph (Tiger) Jones last night at Madison Square Garden.

Nobody gave the 26-year-old Frenchman a chance against the third-ranking middleweight challenger. Nobody except matchmaker Billy Brown and Jean Bretonnel, Royer's manager.

Royer, who hopes to corral enough Yankee dollars to expand his auto-repair shop back home in Chateau-Thierry, had plenty of confidence. He didn't think he'd ever get a chance to show his stuff until Rocky Castellani begged off from a Jones match because of a back injury.

Overcomes Early Lead
Royer closed with a rush to overcome a wide early lead by Jones and won a unanimous decision in the 10-round bout. Referee Al Berli had it 7-2-1, Judge Harold Barnes 6-3-1 and Judge Arthur Suskind 6-4, all for the Frenchie. The AP scored it 5-4-1 for Royer.

The Frenchman, an awkward chap, smothered Jones' wide swings and upset him with his odd style. Jones fought all too little, preferring to dive into clinches that gained nothing. Every time he raised his head in the late rounds, Royer's quick hands scored.

"I saw him in the gym and I didn't want to take him," moaned Bobby Melnick, Jones' manager after the fight. "We turned him down three times but we finally went along to help the promoter. I knew he was an awkward strong guy."

More Work Ahead
Royer probably will get more work as a result of the upset.

The French delegation was elated by the victory, naturally. Royer, former French middleweight champ, hadn't been able to crack the big time TV dough until he got this shot in the Garden.

It was the second win for Royer in his last nine fights. The blond Frenchman had become discouraged while fighting for his previous manager back home. Under Brettonnel's wing, he knocked out highly-rated Tony Anthony at Johnstown, Pa. Feb. 25. Then he lost a decision to Willie Pastrano at New Orleans, April 12. He was ready to go back to France when he got his break.

next week for Kansas City to accept a television offer. I shall remember you and hope to see you again. This is au revoir until then."

Miss Mary Meighan, Harrisburg, representative of International Harvester, was introduced by Miss Linehan on the stage. Boxed red geraniums were used to decorate the stage.

Miss Linehan set an attractive buffet table at the close of the cooking session. The table was covered with a beige and green tablecloth and set with unique honeycomb candles. In the center was a hollowed-out cabbage decorated with miniature frankfurters; many-colored canapés; a pale pink heart-shaped party cake; a liver-pine-apple; swan cream puffs; knishes; cherry and peach pies. As the auditorium lights were dimmed the candlelight gave a party-like atmosphere to the stage.

Mr. Baum thanked the 26 retail stores and manufacturers of the Upper End who cooperated with the cooking school.

Ted Williams Tests His Shoulder Today

BALTIMORE (AP)—Manager Lou Boudreau and Ted Williams have decided the Boston Red Sox hitting star is ready to play today and now it is up to the Baltimore weather. Williams will give the shoulder, which he fractured on March 1 a few minutes after he started spring training. Its first competitive test only if it is warm.

The forecast is for a high of 67 degrees. Whether that will be warm enough to take a chance on the valuable baseball shoulder remains to be answered at game time (2 p.m. EDT).

FAIRFIELD HI ENDS SEASON WITH 10-5 WIN

Fairfield High School finished one of its best baseball seasons in years by drubbing Emmitsburg 10-5 at Emmitsburg Friday afternoon. The victory gave Coach Johnny McAndrews' team a 9-4 record for the campaign.

McDannell hurled for Fairfield and yielded six hits while his teammates secured 10 off Muma. Six runs in the second inning gave Fairfield a comfortable early lead.

Seven seniors for Fairfield took part in their last game. They included Don Shiner, Bob Harbaugh and Bob Anderson, infielders; Dick Sorenson, Tom Dolly and Charley Deardoff, outfielders, and Dick George, pitcher, who played third base Friday.

CANNERS LOSE LAST CONTEST TO DELONE 8-4

Delone Catholic came from behind to win their second straight baseball game of the season, downing Biglerville 8-4 on the loser's diamond Friday.

The Cannners scored two runs in the first on a walk to Koonitz, a single by M. Pitzer and a long double to center by Cline. The Squires tallied a pair of runs in the third on singles by Redding and Chrismer, a walk to Zeigler and Brady's hit.

Biglerville again took the lead in the bottom of the third when Hutton walked and M. Pitzer sent a lashing triple to left-center. At this point Bob Smith relieved Jim Miller on the mound for the Squires. Smith then walked Cline, K. Pitzer and Finck, but was able to get out of the jam by forcing out K. Pitzer and striking out Koonitz.

Delone Takes Lead
In the fifth Delone pushed across two more runs on a hit batsman (Chrismer), and singles by Brady and Greenholt. The Squires took the lead with a pair of runs in the sixth and seventh. The outstanding plays of those two innings were doubles by Chrismer and Zeigler and a triple by Jim Brady.

Relief pitcher Bob Smith is credited with the win while Lee Dugan, fast ball artist for the Cannners, took his second loss against seven wins.

Buddy Redding and Brady collected three hits each for the winners while Murry Pitzer blasted out three safeties for the home team.

On Tuesday the Squires will entertain the Hanover Night Hawks.

Friday's tilt marked the end of the season for Biglerville who compiled a 7-3 record.

Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. Dr. Howard R. and Margaret C. Gold

ELIJAH REBUKES AHAB
I Kings 21:1-4, 16-20
Key Verse: Thou shalt not covet. Exodus 20:17

The victory of Elijah, spokesman for God, at Mount Carmel over the priests of Baal did not end Baalism. It continues in our time in various forms. Covetousness is one aspect of it which leads to moral disbehavior and crime. And in the end to punishment. God and His laws will not be mocked. The narrative of Ahab and Naboth's vineyard illustrates the point.

After the contest on Mount Carmel King Ahab did not openly worship the god Baal, but there is evidence that he practiced some of Baalism's teachings. He certainly failed to remember the commandment from Moses, "Thou shalt not covet." It came about in this way. The King had a summer palace in the fertile valley of Jezreel—at Samaria. Nearby was a vineyard which took the fancy of the King who wished to have it. He made the owner Naboth what on the surface looked like a fair offer. He would give Naboth a better vineyard or, if Naboth preferred, he would give him the value of it in money. Naboth declined the offer and for reasons Ahab would have appreciated had been a faithful follower of his God, and remembered Hebrew history. Naboth looked upon his vineyard as a sacred possession, divinely given. He would do wrong before God if he sold or gave away the land his ancestors had held since that time when Joshua led the Israelites into Canaan. Ahab had no right to desire this property. According to the moral law that was coveting. But Ahab, steeped in Baalism's practices, could not understand that. So the King, like a spoiled child, went into his palace, threw himself on his bed, refused to eat and sulked. That is the first act in this drama.

In the second act Jezebel, the King's wife, appears. She is about the worst character in Hebrew history. No ethics, no conscience, no fear of God. She set about vigorously to get the vineyard for Ahab. Forging his name to a letter she called a meeting of the elders of the city. She had Naboth there and had them ready to testify that Naboth had cursed "God and the King." Naboth was taken outside the city and stoned to death. If Naboth had any heirs they too were probably killed. If there were no heirs the property went to the King. At any rate Ahab got the vineyard through the vigorous action of ruthless Jezebel who, according to her god, Baal, had done no wrong. The chain of lies, deceit and murder followed that first act of covetousness by Ahab. We see the same repeated again and again in modern life by men of greed who will go to any length, within or without the law, to reach their selfish goal.

Act three and Elijah appears. He confronts Ahab with all the abominable deeds done in obtaining a neighbor's vineyard. The blame rests mainly upon him because had he not forgotten the Lord all these sins would not now rest upon him. Speaking for God the prophet declared Ahab's "house" would be utterly destroyed. Jezebel would come to a frightful end. There is one redeeming feature in this drama of doom pronounced by Elijah. Ahab repented of his sins against the God of Israel. For that the Lord would not bring all the evils upon Ahab's house during his lifetime. Truly a forgiving God to all who repent. GOD'S MASTERPIECE?

The rose comes very close to man's standard of perfection. Its delicate beauty seems to mock every effort of the artist or camera to capture it.

But is the rose really God's masterpiece? Hardly!

For its beauty is passive. It brightens life only for those who seek it out and gaze upon it. And in but a few days it withers and is ugly.

God's masterpiece is MAN. For with all his waywardness and selfishness, Man is capable of reflecting the love of God. When he lets God touch his life he is able to bring happiness and faith to others. He doesn't have to wait until he is noticed. He can actively bring spiritual blessings to his fellow men.

As the gardener cultivates the rose, the Church cultivates the lives of men. Always it strives to help us become all that God wants us to be.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DIGS UP SOME BATHING FACTS ON OLD ATHENS

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—When you take a bath, do you scrub yourself with bran paste and then scrape yourself clean with a gold-bladed knife?

If not, you haven't caught up with the niceties of living as practiced in ancient Greece.

In old Athens the hospitable host didn't greet his guest with a cocktail shaker full of dry Martinis. He led him into a room where a tub bath had been previously warmed for him. If you didn't offer a man a bath the moment he stepped into your house, it proved either you were a thoughtless boor—or the visitor was a tax collector, not a guest.

"The Great Unwashed" This sidelight on old bathing customs is one of many gathered by Jack R. Dick, vice president of the National Vanity Co. over in Bayonne, N.J. Every family now years for at least two or three bathrooms, but Dick's study showed it took a long, stern uphill fight to get Americans accustomed to the idea of taking baths at all.

It is not without reason that our ancestors were called "The Great Unwashed." The Greeks and Romans regarded bathing as a health aid, but epidemics caused the closing of public baths in Europe toward the end of the Middle Ages. The masses got the idea that bathing itself was dangerous. So did many doctors.

This public prejudice against bathing lasted through the 17th and 18th centuries, and probably the only time many pioneers got an over-all bath was when they went swimming or fell into a creek. Some southern plantations had bathing pools, but they were usually entered only during warm weather.

Soap, Water Not Lethal Benjamin Franklin, however, had a bathtub—a portable copper "slipper bath," so called because of its shape. He is reported to have taken warm baths twice weekly in treating a skin ailment during 1778. By 1795 sea bathing was being prescribed to cure goiter.

The great American tradition of the Saturday night bath became widespread in the last century. Dr. Simon Baruch, father of financier Bernard Baruch, was among the first to popularize shower or "rain baths" in this country, as more and more people became convinced that soap and hot water weren't necessarily lethal.

Primaries
Tuesday, May 18
1954

I want to explain just how it came about that I am back in the harness again, where I did not expect to be. After New Year's when the question of congressional candidates was being discussed, an increasing number of people began urging me to become a candidate. The peculiar thing I noticed was as many Democrats as Republicans were urging me to announce my candidacy. Now the reason for this was, these Democrats had voted for Eisenhower. They wanted a change. And they wanted him to have a chance. To do this they realized that he must have a Republican Congress. There seemed to be some question in their mind as to whether the incumbent could be re-elected. The Republicans recognized the need for a strong active candidate, close and responsive to the people. One who would devote all his energies and attention to the duties of the office and especially not be burdened with out-of-state business. They wanted a candidate who was truly representative of the people. These Democrats and Republicans wanted a candidate who was one of them, able to deal sympathetically and understandingly with their problems. With the courage to discharge all of the duties of the office. To you farmers, you men with large families and men who work let me say that I am one of you. In asking you for your wholehearted support I stake my claim on my long record of public service and ask you to soberly think over the years when I served you as your Congressman. Do you remember the kinds of campaigns we used to have? The victories we won? How we rode over the Democratic majorities? Those days we were united, our morale was high, and our majorities made us proud. Senator Wade from Cumberland County, in a public address Monday evening, lamented the fact that the incumbent is a weak candidate and expressed fear that the Democrats might win the District this year, and he is entirely right. That is why it is very important that a strong candidate must be nominated if we are to win. We must not let President Eisenhower down. We must not overlook the fact that York County has its first candidate for Governor and Cumberland County has its first candidate for Congress, and both these candidates are Democrats. This makes it necessary that we nominate the strongest candidate that we can find. Our present Congressman two years ago ran 6,508 votes behind the ticket in York County with organization support, and was elected by a very narrow margin in the district. We cannot win with a weak candidate. Vote for Chester H. Gross for Congress. If nominated I promise an old-fashioned hard hitting campaign in the general election.

RYAN JURORS CANNOT AGREE

NEW YORK (AP)—The trial of Joseph P. Ryan, once powerful waterfront labor boss accused of stealing union funds, has ended in a mistrial with the jury "hopelessly deadlocked." Nearly 30 hours after the case was turned over to the jury, it filed back into court last night to announce that two jurors on the all-male panel held firmly against the other 10 blocking a verdict.

Outside the court room, the jury foreman said the vote had been 10 to 2 in favor of finding Ryan guilty.

The onetime dockworkers' leader, robust and strong in his heyday but now ailing at the age of 70, had been indicted on 51 grand larceny counts accusing him

Squealing Brakes Can Be Cured In Number Of Ways; Firmer Application Helps

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL

Many an intersection is the meeting of headlights and light heads.

Those Squealing Brakes

Do the brakes keep you on edge with their annoying squeals? If so, there are several things you can, and should, do about it. The first will perhaps come as a surprise because it probably is the very thing you have been avoiding. I refer to the business of using the brakes a little more firmly. Don't overdo this, of course, but instead of applying the brakes so lightly give the pedal a firmer push. If you do this once or twice when first starting out the brake linings often are then "conditioned" for noiseless operation the rest of the day.

If this doesn't help then the brake shoes may be improperly adjusted. On some cars the heel and toe clearances for front brakes are not equal. This difference is often overlooked, to the tune of considerable noise. But if the shoes have correct clearances, and there is no binding at their anchors, check to see if the linings are cut back at their ends. This is desirable, since it checks vibration of the shoes when they are just starting to contact their drums. Finally, you can wrap a coil spring around each brake drum, if such coils are not already on the car.

Thoughts On Lubrication

That radiator cap will come off easier if you will use a little door stop grease on the rim of the filler pipe. . . . Petroleum jelly makes a good lube for use on the trunk cover hinges but it doesn't stand up as well as high temperature bearing lube for the distributor cam. . . . That struggle to raise the hood can be lessened by greasing the hood lock and its controls.

Always Something New

J. N. is one of those fellows who has been pressing on the accelerator so many years he thinks he knows cars like the proverbial book. That's why the fellows where he buys his gas couldn't suppress a smile when they learned that recently he was stumped by the engine failing to crank. He put the selector lever of the automatic transmission in "neutral," turned the ignition switch, pressed the starter button but nothing at all happened. Lights and horn operated so he knew the battery was still alive. If seemed to him clearly an electrical lapse but it never occurred to him that the trouble was in the neutral safety switch which prevents cranking when the transmission is set for drive, low or reverse.

Mechanic Joe Speaking

"Any idea that deposits of carbon within the engine will prove to be a blessing in disguise by raising compression have been shattered by engineers pointing out that the effect of all this is more than offset by increase in temperature. Carbon deposits also retard transfer of heat. They usually preignite the fuel mixture so as to cause sharp ping even if the gas is of high enough octane rating to take care of normally high compression. Temperature rise spoils the whole party, especially if at the same time the owner becomes careless about the car's cooling system, fluid level in the automatic transmission and timing."

Plugs Can Be Fussy

There has been so much said on the subject of not over-tightening spark plugs motordom has lost sight of the fact that insufficient tightening can also cause trouble. Car owners have been warned that over-tightening causes damage to gaskets, may strip the threads, and may change the gap between points by twisting the shell. But if a plug isn't tight enough its heat transfer to the motor won't be normal and there may be pre-ignition. Moreover there will be increased erosion of the plug points.

Keep These In Mind

Wipe off the tops of the spark plugs if the engine is wet or the car has been standing out in the dampness. Difficulty starting is most likely due to moisture at these spots.

On a rainy day the windshield wipers (if the vacuum operated type) can serve as a rough vacuum gauge to help you get better gas mileage. Every time the wiper blades stumble or slow down you may be opening the throttle more than necessary.

Caught In The Middle

One reason there is so much trouble with transmissions, manual as well as automatic, is because so many drivers think that the only damage they may inflict on the gears is carelessness in shifting or in selection of the shift points in the case of automatics. Just because you don't shift into reverse when the car is traveling in a forward speed is no guarantee that other errors in driving, or just plain carelessness, won't put

Invited To Attend Revival Meeting

LONDON (AP)—The Archbishop of Canterbury, ranking prelate of the Church of England, has accepted an invitation to attend the final London revival meeting of America's Billy Graham, the evangelist's headquarters announced Friday.

The meeting will be held May 22 at the vast Wembley stadium, where a crowd of 110,000 is expected.

Graham and his team expect to make a rapid tour of England, Wales, Scotland and North Ireland and hold several services on the continent before returning to the United States about July 1.

Graham has addressed well over a million Britons since he launched his crusade in London 11 weeks ago.

the gears on the sick list.

I was reminded of this by a recent case in which too fast driving over a rough road seriously damaged the transmission of a reader's car. Actually the gears are caught in the middle in more cases than we realize. They are always disturbed by worn engine mounts which allow too much shake. Too much looseness in the drive line and the rear-end, including springing, will give the transmission a run for its money. Included in this is too high tire pressure, especially if the roads are rough.

For Future Reference

I have pointed out to a number of readers that I am not an expert on car radio so my only interest in passing along the following tip is merely as a reporter. The topic is the radio condenser in the ignition system. I understand this should be connected to the ignition terminal of the coil, not to the distributor terminal. If incorrectly attached spark plugs will foul, breaker points will burn, and there will be generally poor engine performance.

You can tell if piston rings have been exerting equal pressure on the cylinder walls by noting if the rings and the walls are smooth and bright, over their entire surface.

A common mistake when trying to figure the cause of low compression in a cylinder is to overlook the possibility of a leaky head gasket.

It's A Motor Question

Q. What would cause the stop-lights to remain on sometimes when I have applied the brakes and then released them? A new stoplight switch hasn't helped.

A. H. F.

A. The master cylinder's piston may not come all the way back so as to clear the by-pass port. Or there may be inferior fluid in the brakes which expands when heated. Check the pedal's free play first.

Q. There is quite a bit of squealing from under the hood when the car is first used in the morning. How can I tell if this is due to the fan belt or the water pump? Wm. L. H.

A. The fan belt makes an intermittent noise as contrasted with a pump noise which is steady.

Q. Is it really necessary to use a new tube when buying a new tire? When I recently bought a new tire the dealer insisted that I not take any chances with the old tube. L. R. V.

A. It all depends on the tube. Often the old tube can be used again, but in your case the dealer probably found that the tube was being rim cut. Or it may simply have been too old.

Q. What am I going to do about broken valve springs? One right after the other. Replacement springs seem to be standing up however. I have been told that the breakage is due to not having sufficient tappet clearances but there is so much clearance now the engine sounds like a thrashing machine. H. B.

A. The breakage has nothing to do with the clearances. You will find that the old springs have become corroded because of excessive crankcase acidity. This, in turn, would be the result of too many cold short runs with the car, and failure to change oil often enough. If you were to examine the old springs in this car you would find them etched at points where they are going to break.

Q. I have been told that if I take out the acceleration pump on my particular car without following a special procedure, I will damage it. Any truth in this?

A. It's just a matter of being careful not to damage anything because adjustment is made by proper bending of the throttle connector rod.

MAY IS AUTOMOTIVE SAFETY MONTH

COULD THIS HAPPEN TO YOU?

ONE out of THREE accidents may be blamed to car failure rather than DRIVER failure!

You flirt with death if your car hasn't been Safety Checked at every danger point by a skilled technician.

IT COSTS LESS TO DRIVE A SAFE CAR

Little troubles have a way of growing into big troubles. An inexpensive repair job may save an expensive job later—and more important, it may save someone's life, even your own!

During Automotive Safety Month we're offering six specialized safety services at all these vital points:

BRAKES (Can you stop before it's too late?)

LIGHTS (Can you see clearly? . . . Can the driver facing you see clearly?)

STEERING (One bad turn may be your last.)

WINDSHIELD WIPERS (In driving rain, your vision is no better than your wipers.)

HORNS (Your horn must not fail!)

TIRES (Are they as good as they look.)

You can be lulled into a false sense of security by car failures which develop gradually so you aren't aware of them—until it may be too late.

DRIVE INTO ONE OF THE FOLLOWING GARAGES OR FILLING STATIONS AND HAVE YOUR CAR OR TRUCK CHECKED FOR SAFETY!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

In Memoriam

In remembrance of Allen Eckert, who passed away one year ago.

"You suffered much, you murmured not,
I watched you day and night.
Flowers laid upon the grave
Will whisper and decay.
But the remembrance for you who
Will sleep beneath
Will never fade away.
Rest on "Pappy, thy labor is o'er"
Thy willing hands will toll no more."
Mrs. Grace Harman

In loving memory of our dear mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller; mother who passed away 14 years ago, father who passed away 28 years ago.

"Sleep on, dear mother and father,
And take your rest.
God called you home,
He thought it best.
In silence you suffered
And patience you bore
Until God called you home
To suffer no more.
Sadly missed by the family,
Their daughter, Mrs. Grace Harman

In memory of my husband,
Charles O. Harman, who passed away 16 years ago, May 14.

"The month of May once more is here,
To me the saddest of the year
Because it took from me away
My dear husband, sixteen years ago today.
You are resting in peace, dear
husband,
Sixteen sad years have passed away,
You are gone but not forgotten
As I think of you each day,
Sadly missed by his wife,
Mrs. Grace Harman

1ST CONTINGENT OF WOUNDED AT HANOI; FLOWN FROM FORTRESS

By LARRY ALLEN — The French mobilized all available helicopters and light planes in Indochina today to push the evacuation of their seriously wounded from captured Dien Bien Phu.

The first contingent of the 450, who are expected to be flown out by agreement with the Communist-led Vietnamese, arrived by plane at Hanoi late yesterday. The wounded eight men included French paratroopers, Algerians and Foreign Legionnaires.

More batches like this, suffering from critical head or body wounds, were expected in Hanoi this afternoon.

Rush Mercy Lift
The French rushed helicopters and monoplanes to Luang Prabang, royal Laotian capital, 115 miles southwest of the fallen bastion to proceed with the mercy lift. Here in Hanoi, the French forbade any interviews with the wounded until possibly next week because of their "critical condition."

(Informed military and civilian sources in Saigon voiced fears today that the Vietnamese command, Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap, was trying to gain important military advantages from the evacuation operation. This interpretation stemmed from Giap's insistence that the French refrain from bombing 70 miles of strategic highway from Dien Bien Phu to Sonla, east of the fallen fortress. The Vietnamese said their own wounded are to be moved along that road.

KINGSTON, Pa. (P)—The Pennsylvania All-state High School Orchestra performed in public concerts here Friday and today. Some 155 musicians are participating.

High school students from all parts of the state have registered for the annual event. The orchestra will be conducted by B. Ray Yerger, director of instrumental music in the Haverford, Pa., schools.

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (P)—William H. McCormick, 96, died last night—two weeks after celebrating his 71st wedding anniversary.

RUSSIAN SHIFT ON INDOCHINA BEING STUDIED

GENEVA (P)—Western delegates took advantage of today's recess in the Geneva talks to give careful study to Russia's sudden shift in position on an Indochina peace settlement.

The Allied group also took time out to chart its strategy for a series of secret bargaining sessions with the Communists on the Indochina issue.

Western sources voiced hope the Soviet switch and the closed door talks next week will bring the three-week-old parley to the hard bargaining stage and discourage the Reds from using it as a propaganda forum.

Agrees To Supervision
Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov uncovered the new Russian position yesterday. He agreed to international supervision of any Indochina peace settlement.

Molotov proposed supervision by a neutral nations commission without naming the nations he had in mind. Previously the Russians had backed Vietnam proposals for a mixed commission of Communist and non-Communist Indochinese.

Western spokesmen reacted cautiously to the Russian move although a French delegation source said it represented a concession on "a most important" point.

The British called it an advance beyond the earlier Communist position.

An official U. S. spokesman at first labelled Molotov's proposal a "slight change." But later, he withdrew this and said the American delegation had no comment.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Post-Dispatch Is Sponsoring Hearing

NEW YORK (P)—The St. Louis Post-Dispatch has become the first commercial sponsor of the televised Army-McCarthy hearings in Washington. The newspaper, which operates its own TV station, is buying time on another outlet to do so.

The Dumont network announced yesterday that its affiliate station WTVI in St. Louis, Mo., has sold sponsorship of the afternoon telecast to the newspaper.

The price was not disclosed.

RUSSIAN BIRTH RATE SLIPPING

NEW YORK (P)—Good evidence indicates the Russian birth rate today is a little lower than that of the United States.

The Soviet government for many years has taken costly measures to encourage fertility. There are baby bonuses and pensions and also special medals for Russian women who rear big families. There are subsidies for baby clothing and lots of other benefits to make child-bearing and child rearing easier.

The Soviet government outlawed abortions—once legal in Russia. It makes birth control devices of such low quality that in effect it discourages voluntary limitation on the size of families.

But, judging by population figures which have become available through official Soviet sources, the Russian birth rate has not kept pace with that of the United States.

Announce Figures
The Russians have announced their net increase in population in current years is three million to 3,200,000 a year.

Deputy Premier Anastase Mikoyan in addition recently announced the 1953 death rate as 8.9 persons per thousand.

Comparison of these two Soviet figures—taking into consideration that immigration and emigration in the Soviet Union are both insignificant—leads to an estimate that in 1953 about five million Soviet children were born and that the birth rate is about 24 per 1,000. The total number of births in the United States in 1953 has been Bureau as nearly four million and the birth rate was around 25 per 1,000. The U.S. death rate in 1953 was 9.6 per 1,000.

$50,000 FOR MOTHER'S DAY
COLUMBIA, S. C. (P)—Phillip Wittenberg yesterday filed a $50,000 damage suit against Eastern Air Lines, Inc., charging that it caused him to miss Mother's Day here with his family.

SWP HOUSE PAINT

• It pays to be "choosy" when you select house paint. Whether you employ a painting contractor or not, the price difference between famous SWP House Paint and ordinary house paint means less than $5.00 for the average house job. This slight difference pays for years of extra wear... one of the wisest economies you can make!
